AGENDA

11:00am Welcome and Introductions

11:05am NH Green Crab Project

Dr. Gabriela Bradt (UNH & NH Sea Grant) is a marine biologist and fisheries extension specialist with New Hampshire Sea Grant and UNH Cooperative Extension. With expertise in aquaculture, fisheries, and sustainable seafood, she works at the intersection of science, community, and food systems. Gabriela's work ranges from developing green crab fisheries and markets to supporting seaweed aquaculture.

11:30am Fiddler on the Hoof: Fiddler-crabs and Gulf of Maine estuaries

- David Samuel Johnson (Virginia Institute of Marine Science) is a writer, storyteller, and coastal ecologist who specializes in marine invertebrates such as worms, snails and crabs. He is most interested in how global issues such as nutrient pollution, climate change, range expansions, and sea-level rise influence coastal ecosystems. He has studied the Great Marsh in northeast Massachusetts for over 20 years. David is an Associate Professor at William & Mary's Batten School of Coastal and Marine Science at the Virginia Institute of Marine Science.

11:55am Oriental Bittersweet Removal in Hampton

- Tracy Degan (Rockingham Conservation District) is RCCD's Senior Project Manager.
- Arianna Spear (Rockingham Conservation District) is RCCD's Conservation and Stewardship Manager and also a NH Pesticide Applicator
